DIV. OF OIL, GAS & MINING

Dear Joelle

Under cover of letter dated October 22, 2002 I have received the following 18 permit fees billing, and accordingly respond with information that I have on file pertaining to each one as follows;

Project ID # E010147 Western Utah Copper paid on Oct. 3rd by WUCC
Project ID # M010059 Western Utah Copper paid on Oct. 3rd by WUCC
Project ID # SO10060 Western Utah Copper paid on Oct. 3rd by WUCC

Project ID # E010146 BMX payment enclosed

✓ Project ID # E010112 Breccia Development closed two years ago

Project ID # E010113 Breccia Development reclamation in progress, payment enclosed

✓ Project ID # E010126 Breccia Development, closed two years ago. Note; sites were permitted in 1999 but never built. This is completely closed, and fully reclaimed

Project ID # E010128 assigned to Horn silver mines 18 months ago Payment enclosed

Project ID # E010129 active, payment enclosed

Project ID # E010130 reclamation in progress, payment enclosed

✓ Project ID # E010135 reclaimed and closed

✓ Project ID # E010136 reclaimed and closed

✓ Project ID # E010138 reclaimed please inspect and close

✓ Project ID # S010051 reclaimed, and closed out. Note: BLM released the cash bond on this in January 2002

Project ID # S010054 reclamation in progress, payment enclosed.

Project ID # E010141 Active, payment enclosed

✓ Project ID # E010145 This was taken over by a cedar city firm—I need to see what happened to the transfer of this notice

0004

✓ Project ID # E010144 This project was reclaimed concurrently, 18 months ago. I am not the contact person any longer, the correct, last known address is listed on it, It should have been closed. I was under the impression that it had been inspected last year.

From the above information it appears that only five permit fees are due. In case there is a discrepancy, I have enclosed a check in the amount of $1050.00. Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Sincerely
